Start-Up Description: Initially started by consulting university students in their research project, Prayanam Industries is now providing aerospace, defence, and multi-disciplinary engineering consultancy, R&D, and design services. We offer innovative, technological solutions which define the generation. The key areas of our focus are avionics and electronic warfare systems, aerospace propulsion, energy, stealth, and wearable technology like exoskeleton suits. Recently we have also started the groundwork for hypersonics research and other unconventional technologies. Prayanam Industries (OPC) Private Limited is established in 2019 and was officially incorporated in August 2020. After its incorporation, our company was soon recognized as a startup by the Department of Industry and Internal Trade (DPIIT), Government of India.
